Money and Pensions Service Response:

On 1 January 2019, Pension Wise, The Pensions Advisory Service and the Money Advice Service merged to form the Single Financial Guidance Body (SFGB), an arms-length body of the Department for Work and Pensions (DWP). Subsequently, on 1 April 2019 these organisations became known as the Money and Pensions Service (MaPS). MaPS aims to deliver guidance and advice relating to pensions, money guidance, debt advice, and consumer protection. Further details can be found on the website: <https://moneyandpensionservice.org.uk/>.

I can confirm the Money and Pensions Service holds the information you are seeking regarding question 1. This data is available on the DWP website which publishes employee details and payroll costs for its permanent staff and contractors on a monthly basis. On average, 13% of MaPS’s employees work part-time. Please click on the link below to access information concerning the number of people employed by MaPS.
